

There is a new, confidential meeting in Los Angeles for those healing professionals struggling with sex addiction.

This meeting is open to therapists, clergy, and medical professionals needing an extra degree of anonymity as we open ourselves to the healing we seek to provide others in a safe space. The time and location for this meeting are not published due to discretion and confidentiality.

Email basic information about your professional role to healing.saa@gmail.com for more information, as well as for time and location.

WE ARE NOT ALONE!
